PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Systems Engineer and Frontend Developer with more than 8 years of experience in the design and development of web applications, responsive interfaces and reusable components. Specialized in Angular, TypeScript, JavaScript, HTML5 and CSS/SCSS, with experience in building component systems and modular architecture under Atomic Design principles (atoms, molecules and organisms). Experience in consumption and integration of REST APIs, frontend services and joint work with Backend, UX/UI and Architecture teams. My knowledge of web accessibility is a differential that I incorporate from development to create scalable, maintainable and inclusive solutions.
